Overview

With Jesse Lumsden out, who shoulders the load in the Edmonton backfield? That's the biggest question being asked in the wake of the star running back's shoulder dislocation in last week's 19-17 win over Winnipeg in the '09 season opener. Injury creates opportunity, so look for rookie import 'back Arkee Whitlock to make his CFL regular season debut and share duties with hard running and dependable Canadian Calvin McCarty. Head Coach Richie Hall says the players may change, but the Esk's offensive philosophy won't. "Our offence is what it is, the plays we asked Jesse to run are the same ones that Whitlock will run. The only difference is in their individual styles."

There is change to the D side as veteran free safety Scott Gordon is on the limp with a leg injury from the Winnipeg game. Gordon's experience will be sorely missed, especially so against the CFL's top passer Anthony Calvillo whose lightning quick release delivery can play havoc on the best DBs. Eskimo rookies Lamar Herron and Elliott Richardson will be in the cross hairs at Molson Stadium. But that doesn't concern Coach Hall, "It's a challenge for whoever you put out there, but you've got to get in the fire sometime."

The Marc Trestman led Al's are an experienced squad with few significant changes from last year. These two teams met in the East Final, but the Edmonton roster bears little resemblance to that which took the field at the Big O in November. Taking two points out of Molson Stadium – never easy at the best of times – would be a welcome boost to an Edmonton team that's building chemistry and an identity.

Acquired: Traded to Edmonton from Winnipeg on June 15, 2009 in exchange for import OL Thaddeus Coleman.

2008: (Winnipeg) Amos recorded 52 defensive tackles, one forced fumble, one fumble recovery and one interception in 11 regular season games in 2008. He also led the team with seven pass knockdowns. Willie missed the first three games of his rookie campaign with a pulled hamstring sustained in training camp. He returned to the field on July 18th at BC.

Pro: Prior to joining the Bombers, Amos had a short stint on the practice squad of the Chicago Bears in 2006. He was later assigned to the Hamburg Sea Devils of NFL Europa.

College/Personal: Amos played in all 12 of Nebraska's games in his freshman season in 2000 as a reserve free safety and special teamer. In 2001, he made seven starts, including that year's Rose Bowl, and ranked among the Big 12 leaders with four interceptions, including a 20-yard touchdown return against Kansas State. He made 25 tackles in his team's final four games, including a career-high eight stops against Colorado and Miami. After missing all of the 2002 season following a knee injury, he returned to the Nebraska lineup in 2003 and saw limited action in five games. In 2003, he was converted to receiver. He had his best game as a receiver versus Western Illinois, when he racked up a career-high 40 yards and two TDs on three receptions. As a senior in 2004, Amos was switched to wide receiver and recorded two touchdowns in his debut performance against Western Illinois. He had a season-best four catches in the season finale against Colorado.
